My dear Mr. Chapman, -

I just received your post-card.

I certainly will be glad to see you at the sale of March 11th.

The weather in March in our country mostly gives us plenty of rain and wind with some nice sunny days between. It is not very cold, but still rather chilly. It has a lot of ressemblance with London weather, but our hotels and houses are better heated.

I do not want to flatter our weather, but I think you may risk it.

With my kind regards

Yours very truly,

J. Schulman
